

Dr Panayiotis A. Kerimis

MD, M.Sc (UCL), MRCSEd, DO-HNS (RCSEng)

Specialist Otolaryngologist

I was born in Limassol in 1974. I graduated from Semmelweis Medical University, in 1999, obtaining the title of Doctor of Medicine (MD).

Following my medical studies I completed my three year surgical training in the United Kingdom and having passed the official examinations, I was admitted as a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh (MRCSEd).

I subsequently passed the official examinations of the Royal College of Surgeons of England and was awarded the Diploma in Otolaryngology- Head and Neck Surgery DO-HNS (RCSEng).

I then continued to pursue my postgraduate studies in the University College of London (UCL), at the Royal National Ear, Nose and Throat hospital, where I obtained the degree of Master of Science in Audiology M.Sc (UCL).

I completed my four year residency program in Otolaryngology and Head and Neck Surgery at the Sheba Medical Center (Tel- Hashomer hospital), in Israel, where I had the opportunity to work with some of the most renowned doctors in the field and gained tremendous clinical and surgical experience. Having fulfilled the requirements and passing the official examinations for Otolaryngology I was accredited as a Specialist in Otolaryngology.

Following my specialization title, I wished to enrich my training so I completed a one year Clinical Fellowship in Otology, at the Sheba Medical Center, in Israel, specializing in Ear surgery.

Since 2013 I practice Otolaryngology at my private Ear, Nose, Throat and Audiology center in Limassol, specializing in all aspects of paediatric and adult Otolaryngology problems.

I am a member of the Cyprus Medical Association, Cyprus Otolaryngological Society, General Medical Council (UK) as well as the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh.

Since 2005 I am married to Chryso and a very proud father of Athos and Constantina.